6. [redacted] telephoned to say that the Director had met Representative Hale Boggs at a dinner party and he seemed quite impressed with the Congressman and had mentioned to [redacted] that we should do something. I agreed with [redacted] to forward a little note giving the background on Boggs and in view of his committee assignments would recommend that we take no further action.

7. It was agreed that [redacted] (Office of Personnel) or a member of his staff would attend the hearings on S. 94, the health insurance bill on Wednesday and Thursday.

9. Arrangements are being made for Mr. Fred Belen and Mr. Charles Johnson of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee staff to come to the Agency for luncheon on Friday, 17 April. They will be given a short briefing by the IG in the DDCI's office prior to the luncheon.

10. An Agency group met with Mr. William Fee (Bureau of the Budget) to discuss our Foreign Language Training Program (see Journal of 14 April). Included in the group were Messrs. [redacted] (OTR), [redacted] (Budget Division), and [redacted] of this office. Mr. Fee was primarily interested in comparing our foreign language award schedules with those proposed by the State Department. It was noted that in some comparable situations our awards were lower than those of State; however, there are significant differences in the two programs. Mr. Fee was most appreciative of our assistance and gave to [redacted] a copy of the State Department's present program plan.
